Psychotherapy Training

As part of the studies you will receive an education not only in the theoretical scope of psychotherapy but also in the practical application. Self-awareness groups and clinical experience in psychotherapy are an integral part of our programme. This is done at SFU Vienna in cooperation with the following Austrian collaboration partners of SFU:

- Psychoanalysis (starting with Freud): Psychoanalytisches Seminar Innsbruck (PSI), www.psi-innsbruck.at
- Person-Centered Therapy (starting with Rogers): Institut für Personzentrierte Studien (IPS), www.apg-ips.at
- Systemic Family Therapy: Österreichische Arbeitsgemeinschaft
- für systemische Therapie und systemische Studien (ÖAS), www.oas.at

- Existential Analysis (starting with Frankl): Österreichische Gesellschaft für Logotherapie und Existenzanalyse (GLE-Ö), www.gle.at
- Transactional Analysis: Institut für Transaktionsanalytische Psychotherapie (ITAP), www.itap.at
- Individual Psychology (starting with Adler): The curriculum for Individual Psychology (IP) is offered by SFU independently, www.sfu.ac.at (click Studien > Wahlpflichtfächer – psychotherapeutische Schulen > Individualpsychologie)
- Jungian Psychology: Österreichische Gesellschaft für Analytische Psychologie (ÖGAP), www.cgjung-gesellschaft-oesterreich.at
- Verhaltenstherapie (CBT)

Outpatient Clinic

SFU, Vienna, runs its own in-house Outpatient Clinic consisting of a clinic for adults (+43 1 798 69 00, clinic@sfu.ac.at; Salztorgasse 5, 1. Floor/1010 Vienna) In addition to the German outpatients clinic due to growing demand there is also an international clinic that caters to the need of non-German speakers. The international clinic provides adult refugees and immigrants with the highest quality of therapy options. Non- and limited-English speaking adults receive care with the assistance of psychotherapy trainees who speak the languages most commonly encountered in the clinic: Turkish, Serbo-Croatian, Russian and English. There are three children's clinics (Neubau, Stadlau and Liesing), enabling students to undergo psychotherapy training, in a way that complements their academic work. Clinical training is available in English.

Research in the International Programmes

The research projects at SFU focus on psychotherapy research (qualitative and quantitative designs) and are multifaceted, aiming to involve BA, MA and PhD students. We foster international collaboration with our partners in France, Canada, Slovenia, Germany, Russia, the Ukraine, China, USA, Nigeria and Italy.

Some topics are:

Psychotherapy in Europe, Transcultural and Historical Research, Hoarding (Messies in Psychotherapy), Hermeneutic Research on Therapy Approaches, Spousal Adjustment, Corrective Experiences, Training Research, Common Factors and Gender Research.

For a complete list of running projects and project investigators please visit www.sfu.ac.at/english.

Student Exchange and Guest Lecturing

SFU as your study abroad partner

SFU welcomes students from around the world to join the programmes in Psychotherapy Science and Psychology on a semester-long and year-long basis. We also encourage exchange between our programmes and associated affiliations in France (SFU Paris), Slovenia (SFU Ljubljana), Germany (SFU Berlin), Italy (SFU Milano), Canada, Russia, the Ukraine, China, USA and Nigeria.

Erasmus+

SFU is part of the European Union's ERASMUS+ programme. We accept ten students each year. Please contact us for more information at international@sfu.ac.at.

Independent research and scholar exchange

SFU offers the opportunity to students and researchers from other institutions to pursue their academic interests on a short-term basis as scholars in residence via independent research and self-designed curricula, under faculty supervision.

Information Evenings

If you want to meet our staff members and students please come to our Open House Days and Information Evenings. Please check online for the latest schedule at www.sfu.ac.at/english and contact us if you need any assistance. We are looking forward to meeting you at SFU Vienna!
