

CURRICULUM VITAE

UNIV.-PROF. DR. STEPHAN STEINER

EDUCATION & EXPERIENCE

2005–present

Lecturer, Senior Lecturer and Professor at the Sigmund Freud University, Vienna, Austria (fields of research and teaching: History of Mentalities, Psycho-History, Trauma in History, Social Psychology, Enlightenment, Cultural Studies, Health and Illness in historical perspective, Avantgarde Arts and Literature)

Founder Member of the “Department of Transcultural and Historical Research” at the Sigmund Freud University, Vienna, Austria

Co-Editor of the peer-review journal, Frühneuzeit-Info (Early Modern Info)

Conference speaker and lecturer (amongst others, in Istanbul, Sofia, Cluj, Sibiu, Brussels, Paris, Montpellier, Madrid, Granada, Berlin, Munich, Cambridge, Nottingham, Glasgow, Niagara, Rochester, Ottawa)

2018 Stipend recipient: Franckesche Stiftungen zu Halle (Carinthians in Ebenezer? The anatomy of a failed emigration)

2017 Head of the “Institute of transcultural and historical research” at SFU

Short term visiting fellow at Trinity Hall / Cambridge

Follow-up stipend recipient: German Historical Institute Warsaw (Gypsies in early modern Silesia)

2016 Full professorship at Sigmund Freud University

2016 Stipend recipient: German Historical Institute Warsaw (Gypsies in early modern Silesia)

2011/2012 Stipend Recipient: City of Vienna – MA 7 (“Penal Colonies in the Habsburg Empire”)

2011 Habilitation on “Deportations in the Habsburg Empire and its European Context” (History Department, University of Vienna, Austria) –Teaching license: “Geschichte der Neuzeit” (Modern history)

2010 Lecturer, History Department, University of Vienna, Austria

2006–2009 Stipend Recipient: the Hamburg Foundation for Science and Art, Hamburg, Germany (Hamburger Stiftung zur Förderung von Wissenschaft und Kultur)

2004–2005 Editor: Political Writings of Jean Améry

1993–2004 Essays for scholarly journals and various quality magazines, radio works, plus a film project

1993–1998 Lecturer at numerous Bulgarian Universities (including Sofia, Veliko Tarnovo, Varna)

1995 Exhibitions: “War of Annihilation: Crimes of the German Wehrmacht, 1941–1944” and “200 Days and 1 Century” – planning and academic supervision of their presentation in Vienna and of the congresses accompanying them

1994 Planning and academic supervision of a congress concerning the philosopher, Hannah Arendt

1993 Planning and academic supervision of a congress honouring the philosopher and essayist, Jean Améry

LANGUAGES

German (first language)

English (fluent)

Latin (proficient – six years in school)

French & Italian (basic reading skills)

Farsi (Persian) (basic reading skills)

Yiddish (intermediate reading skills)

Early Modern German & English (perfect reading skills)